Letter No.67 dated 20th October 1934 from the Principal, -- Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore to the Inspector General in Mysore

"I have the honor to state that in connection with the Annual --- Vidyarthi Examinations conducted in the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, -- Mysore, in September last, the students of the Agama Classes also were - examined along with those of other branches of study and that as a result of the examinations thus held it is found that two students in Vaikhanasa Agama and one in Pancharatra Agama are deserving of the prizes usually awarded to the students of the College at the end of the year. Further, the Agama examinations were conducted by a set of four examiners two of whom were local men and the other two outsiders, which latter, are, as per practice obtaining in the College, are to be given remuneration at the usual rate.

In these circumstances, I would request you to kindly obtain the necessary sanction of Government for making payments as detailed below. I may in this connection invite your kind attention to this office No.20

dated

ted 27-7-1[illegible], proposing the allotment of Rs.18 in the rates for the year under reference."
